

Henry Ford Community College Instructor in Mathematics

The primary responsibility of this position is classroom instruction of students in all levels of mathematics courses, including, but not limited to, developmental, technical, and teacher education. Candidates must possess a minimum of a master's degree in mathematics or a comparable master's degree, such as in the teaching of mathematics (MAT), that includes significant course work in graduate mathematics from a regionally accredited institution.

Complete position profile and application instructions are available at:

<http://www.hfcc.edu>

Henry Ford Community College
5101 Evergreen Road
Dearborn, MI 48128-1495