

Mathematics Faculty
10 month position
Recruitment #0564

This faculty position will require the successful candidate to teach developmental mathematics through linear algebra with emphasis on developmental mathematics. Position requires a Master's degree in Mathematics or Statistics or a Master's degree in related field. Significant math teaching experience required including the ability to use technology to teach mathematics. Candidates should have the ability to work on and lead faculty teams; be available to teach both day and evening sections and at the Laurel campus, as needed. Salary is competitive and commensurate with experience. Applications must be completed online at www.hccjobs.org. by April 30, 2009.

Howard Community College
www.hccjobs.org
TDD: 410-772-4906

HCC is an Equal Employment Opportunity & Affirmative Action employer & values diversity within its faculty, staff & student populations.